Explore Emerging 3rd World Conference on Construction & Building Technology

BuildTech 2026: Next-Gen Innovations welcomes exhibitors and sponsors to join the 3rd World Conference on Construction & Building Technology in Dubai, UAE / London, UK. Under the theme “Pioneering the Future of Construction and Building Technology”, the event offers unmatched opportunities to showcase innovative solutions, connect with 3,000+ global leaders, and engage with 300+ international brands. With a focus on smart innovations, green practices, and advanced construction methods, BuildTech 2026 provides a powerful platform for branding, networking, and market expansion. Sponsors gain exclusive visibility, thought-leadership opportunities, and direct access to decision-makers shaping the future of sustainable and transformative construction.

With a strong focus on digitalization, green practices, and future-ready infrastructure, it connects industry pioneers with stakeholders seeking smarter, safer, and more sustainable building solutions, making it the ideal marketplace for networking, knowledge-sharing, and business growth.

ATTENDEE DEMOGRAPHICS

The BuildTech Week 2026 Conference attracts a premier audience of senior-level professionals, industry pioneers, and influential leaders from construction, architecture, engineering, and real estate. It serves as the global hub for exploring next-generation innovations, sustainable building solutions, and cutting-edge technologies shaping the future of the built environment.

TESTIMONIALS

Beyond the formal presentations, the discussions with leading global design firms were invaluable, even better over a drink as the conference wrapped up. Every single word gave us a huge boost and confirms that we are heading in the right direction.

Antonio Fontanella Director at ISF - Ingegneria Specialistica Fontanella

Congratulations for BuildTech Week 2025 in Madrid. Thank you for the invitation on behalf of Asla Green Solutions. It was a pleasure to meet such diverse, international experienced panelists in construction and building technology!

-Patrizia Laplana Founder & CEO at ASLA Green Solutions S.L.

A special thank you to #BuildTech for the kind invitation and for organizing a truly impactful event. It was a pleasure to engage with such a diverse and experienced panel of global experts in construction and building technology.
